Subscribers: get the most out of Prescrire online

Log in to english.prescrire.org for instant access to every article published in Prescrire International since 1992.

View the contents of every issue since 1992

The "Issue Contents" section includes an "All issues" feature that allows you to view the full table of contents for every single issue of Prescrire International. Registered subscribers can download any article from this vast storehouse of information. The full text of every article from the "New Products", "Adverse Effects" and "Reviews" sections is available to subscribers online, up to a limit of 15 reserved texts per 24-hour period. In addition, a wealth of texts from the "Editorial" and "Outlook" sections and elsewhere are freely available to all.

Zero in on what you need with the "Search" function

The Prescrire in English website includes a powerful Search function covering both articles published in Prescrire International and material published online. You can sort search results by relevance, date or media.

Independent information you can trust

All the information published in Prescrire International and online at english.prescrire.org is produced by Prescrire's editorial staff. Every member of the editorial staff, as well as Prescrire's management, sign a yearly statement certifying that they have no conflicts of interest. Prescrire is a non-profit continuing education organisation which accepts no advertising, no grants and has no ties to industry or government. The information you get is entirely independent. Every text published in Prescrire has been painstakingly researched and reviewed by a panel of specialised health-care professionals. All texts are supported by complete bibliographical references, included in the PDFs available for download.

It just got easier to register online

The online registration system for subscribers has been simplified, to make it easier for you to get online access to information from Prescrire. Get full details on how to register on the inside back cover of this issue.
