Free content online at english.prescrire.org: What, where, when, how... and why?

Launched in 2009, the Prescrire in English website makes quality information from Prescrire instantly available around the world.

Most of the content is for Prescrire International subscribers only. But the site was also created to spread awareness about Prescrire's values, objectives, and way of working, and to help Prescrire and its subscribers to communicate with patients and with the international community.

In Prescrire's "Spotlight". Every month, a selection of short features on the home page of the Prescrire in English website highlights the information that is of greatest interest to the international public. The "Featured Review" includes a free abstract of a detailed analysis from Prescrire International. The "Free Download" allows potential subscribers to sample the quality of the reviews published in every issue. The "Spotlight" archives contain a wide variety of free texts going back to January 2005.

Issue Contents. The full table of contents for every issue of Prescrire International, reaching back to the first issue in 1992, is freely available online.

Positions. The viewpoints of Prescrire's editors on crucial themes facing healthcare professionals today: access to healthcare, conflicts of interest, ethics, regulatory issues, transparency....

Dossiers. The complete results of the annual Prescrire Awards, plus "Medicines in Europe", covering the key issues in European health policy: pharmacovigilance, transparency, patient information, patient safety....

The content freely available online is designed to enrich the exchanges between Prescrire subscribers, their patients and other healthcare professionals worldwide. Spread the word.
